DIPLOMATIC SNARLS.

Another Controversy with Great Britain Now Imminent.

A HARSH DEMAND ON NICARAGUA.

That Republic Must Pay $75,000 Indemnity for the Expulsion of Mr. Hatch—Alliance Negotiations Proceeding Slowly. Colorado Lynching Controversy Settled.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 19.—The British government, through its minister here, has submitted an ultimatum to Nicaragua. It demands a cash indemnity of £15,000 to pay for the expulsion of Mr. Hatch, British consular agent at Bluefields, during the troubles there last year, and also the appointment of a commission to adjudicate the damages sustained by the persons and property of the British subjects who were expelled from the Mosquito reservation about the same time. By the terms of the ultimatum Great Britain is to name one of the commissioners and Nicaragua another, and these two are to name a third, who shall not be a citizen of the United States. A British warship is now on her way to Nicaragua to enforce these demands, which must be complied with within seven weeks from the 25th of February last.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—It is impossible to learn positively whether the state department has been fully advised officially of the severe demands made upon Nicaragua by Great Britian, as reported in the cable dispatches from Managua, but from the fact that General Barrios, who was appointed a special ambassador by the Nicaraguan government to endeavor to settle their differences with Great Britain, has been in Washington for a week it is assumed that our own government is fully posted.

It cannot be denied that this new incident, taken in connection with the hostile attitude of Great Britain towards our sister republic of Venezuela, promises to lead to trouble of a character much more serious than the little incident of the Allianca, which has caused such a commotion. The administration is evidently about to be put in a position where it must lay down a new construction of the Monroe doctrine or else abandon all concern in the future of the smaller republics of Central and South America.

In Venezuela it is alleged that the British are steadily extending their boundary line and encroaching upon Venezuelan territory, in spite of the strong protests of the Venezuelan government and the repeated urging of the United States that the question of boundary should be settled by a resort to arbitration. There are also questions of indemnity arising in Venezuela growing out of claims preferred by other European nations, and there are indications noted by officials here to show that these claims are being pressed by concerted action. Many of the claims for indemnity grow out of the failure of these republics to meet their obligations to foreign debtors under the stress of hard times and the influence of the world wide depression in trade. As the European governments appear to be moving to collect these individual debts on their own account, it is a question that the United States must speedily settle as to how far it is prepared to permit this to go on.

As to Nicaragua, it is felt here that the terms of the British ultimatum are unduly severe. Besides, there is a rather disagreeable reflection upon American citizens in the stipulation that none such shall serve on the commission to adjudge the damages. On the whole it is more than probable that the president will feel called upon to interpose to secure at least an amelioration of the terms of the ultimatum, by an appeal to the British government, representing the great hardship that it would work to Nicaragua under her present depresssed condition of her finances to prefer a demand for so large an indemnity.

THE ALLIANCA AFFAIR.

The Negotiations with Spain Proceeding with Great Secrecy.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—An impenetrable mystery surrounds the negotiations between the state department and the Spanish government on the Allianca affair. It seems to have been determined by the officials of the state department, from the secretary down, that in the present excited state of public feeling in this country better progress can be made towards a peaceable settlement of the incident by keeping the various notes secret than by giving publicity to them before a conclusion has been reached. Therefore the only response to definite inquiries that can be obtained is a positive refusal to discuss the subject in any aspect, and whether or not any action has yet been taken by the Spanish government in the direction of issuing instructions to its naval officers to refrain from further interference with American shipping will probably be learned first from Havana, from which point the orders will be distributed.

As the little gunboats are widely scattered along the Cuban coast and neighboring waters it will not be an easy task to communicate these orders speedily to all of them, so it is just possible that there may be some further incident, similar to the Allianca affair, before these orders are made known to the Spanish naval commanders. It appears, in the light of events of this kind in the past, that the commanding officers of the smaller craft are not always of a high degree of intelligence or rank, for in cases where they have detained American ships they have found it necessary to hold the ships for several days in order that they might fall in with another and larger cruiser, with an officer aboard of sufficient intelligence to read and pass upon the adequacy of the captive's papers.

The general impression here is that the Allianca incident has already passed the acute phase, and may be safely left to diplomatic adjustment in the ordinary course. The Spanish minister has in advance assured the state department that if Spain was in the wrong in the matter she would speedily and voluntarily make all proper reparation, and it is not doubted that if she has not already done so Spain will soon instruct her naval officers to abstain from stopping American ships. The only questions then left to be settled will be questions of fact as to the location of the Allianca when she was first signalled, the exact attitude toward her of the Spanish cruiser, and the question of international law as to the right of search inside of the marine league, the last only in case it is shown that the Allianca was within the limit.

THE GRIEVANCE OF ITALY.

Minister Fava Satisfied with the Prompt Action of Colorado's Governor.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The Italian incident is practically closed so far as it involves the relations of the United States and Italy, and instead of leaving irritation and ill feeling the affair appears to have resulted in further strengthening the friendly relations between the countries.

Ambassador Fava takes this view of the incident, and expresses his appreciation of the promptness and energy with which the federal authorities and those of Colorado sought to secure for Italians the same protection and redress as that given American citizens during the mob lawlessness at Walsenburg.

On the other hand, it is a source of comment and congratulation at the state department that, at a time when foreign entanglements were pressing from all quarters, Baron Fava made no protest beyond presenting the facts as telegraphed by the Italian consul at Denver, and at the same time reassured the Italian government that the authorities here were doing everything in their power, and it is not doubted that Governor McIntyre will be fully able to deal with the question from now on without further communication from Washington.

The ambassador believes that the recent trouble in Colorado, as well as that in New Orleans, will further awaken a sentiment for a national law by which the United States can see that full treaty protection is given to foreigners, even though they be within the jurisdiction of the states.

Probably the Allianca.

HAVANA, March 19.—The commander of the Spanish cruiser Corde De Venandio reports having fired on a steamship flying the English flag. Two blank shots were fired, and then two with balls. It is presumed here that the cruiser was mistaken in the nationality of the flag, and that the steamer fired upon was the Allianca.

ANOTHER FAIR WILL.

The Children of the Dead Bonanza King United in Pressing It.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The legal squabble over the $40,000,000 left by the late bonanza king, James G. Fair, developed a fresh sensation yesterday. What is purported to be a later will than the one previously offered for probate was introduced in the case. The will first produced, it will be remembered, was stolen from the county clerk's office, and in order that the document might be probated Judge Slack had finally ruled that a certified copy of the will might be substituted. Upon the alleged will introduced yesterday a bitter contest will hinge.

This new document purports to be holographic. It is written in lead pencil, on two sheets of legal cap paper. It was brought into court securely framed between two plates of glass, and was presented by Reuben Lloyd, attorney for Virginia Fair and Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, of New York, daughters of the deceased. The attorney for Charles Fair, their brother, came into court with Mr. Lloyd, and apparently approved the proceeding. There is no longer any doubt that the three children have combined to fight for the probate of this latest alleged will. Under its provisions the vast estate would be divided almost equally between the two daughters and Charley, and the distribution would be made at once.

Under the will previously offered for probate the children would get only the income from the estate during their term of life, and upon the death of all of them the estate would be divided into three equal parts, one part going to the children of Mrs. Oelrichs, one part to the children of Virginia Fair, unless she died without issue, when this share would revert to the children of Mrs. Oelrichs, and the remaining one-third to the families of several brothers and sisters of the deceased. Charley Fair's recent marriage caused an estrangement between himself and his father, and he was cut off with a life interest of the estate. His widow would receive nothing.

In other respects the will first produced and the will now produced are very similar. In the second will, however, Charles Fair receives a special bequest of $500,000 to be paid immediately before the distribution of the estate.

A Matrimonial Agent Convicted.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Warren E. Thomson, the matrimonial agent, who claims to be able to supply wives of dazzling beauty and unlimited wealth, was convicted in the United States court here of using the mails to defraud. He is the publisher of the matrimonial paper Heart and Hand, and got himself into trouble by advertising heiresses at twenty-five cents apiece, or three for fifty cents. Last January Thompson advertised to sell the addresses of six beautiful heiresses, some widows and some maidens, at the above terms, and the prosecution alleges he has been receiving several bushels of mail a day since. Pending the hearing of a motion for a new trial sentence was suspended.

Put Poison in the Well.

WICHITA, Kan., March 19. — Henry Cherry, his wife and two sons, Raymond and Henry, aged 10 and 3 years, respectively, were poisoned by drinking water from a well at their home on North Fifth avenue. It is believed that arsenic had been thrown into the well. Cherry and his wife may die. Their faces are frightfully swollen and blackened and three doctors are working with them. The children will live. Suspicion points to an Indian named Summit as the perpetrator of the crime. Summit and Cherry both wanted to buy the same house some months ago, and when Cherry purchased it the Indian threatened that he would poison the whole family.

KILRAIN VERSUS O'DONNELL.

The Fight Declared a Draw, Though Jake Had the Best of It.

BOSTON, March 19.—In the presence of 1,800 people, at the Suffolk Athletic club last night, Jake Kilrain, of Baltimore, and Steve O Donnell, of Australia, Corbett's sparring partner, fought eight rounds, and at the close Referee Patsy Shepard, amid shouts of "Kilrain, Kilrain," declared the contest a draw. While the referee was making up his mind John L. Sullivan, who sat just outside the ropes close by Kilrain's corner, mounted a chair and waving his tile demanded a decision. He shouted: "What's the decision, Patsy?" and when a draw was announced he sprang into the arena and rushed towards O Donnell's corner. Two of the seconds grabbed him by the arms and turned him aside. Then he clasped hands with Kilrain in apparent congratulation, and swinging his arms showed the latter how the fight might have been won. He was ready, he declared, to challenge the winner if the referee had only named one. The ex-champion was finally led off by his friends, and the scene, which had caused the wildest excitement, ended.

It took Referee Shepard five minutes to make up his mind what decision to make. Kilrain had the best of the last round, and at times it looked as if he was going to put O'Donnell out. He had not the force, however, but his old time pluck asserted itself, and with wild rushes he dazed the Australian boy, who had been smiling confidently for seven rounds, and had landed at will upon the face of the Baltimorean. O'Donnell was the cleverest in the leads. In the first round he floored Kilrain and in the second pushed him to the floor. Yet his blows apparently lacked force, while Kilrain did very effective work with his. O'Donnell has gained nothing in reputation by his work last night, while the stock of Kilrain is rated high in Boston.

Kilrain was fat and clumsy, and weighed in at 220 pounds. It was apparent that he had little training, while O'Donnell was in excellent trim and tipped 173 pounds. With O'Donnell were Ike Weir, Jame McKay and Billy Delaney. Kilrain was seconded by Jim McCarthy, Jim Phelan and E. J. Gebhard, while in the background sat John L. Sullivan, whispering instructions and words of cheer to his old antagonist.

SPANIARDS AT IT AGAIN.

Said to Have Sunk an American Schooner, with Sixteen Men.

KEY WEST, Fla., March 19.—A letter has been received here from Cuba stating that the Spanish gunboat Aleedo fired upon and sunk a supposed American schooner off Puerto Padre, near Gibara, with sixteen people on board. It is rumored that the schooner was from Key West. The schooner Goldenhind, of Key West, which left here several weeks ago for a cargo of fruit, with a crew of sixteen men, had to pass Puerto Padre, and may have been the vessel in question. The schooners Louise Hastings and Lillie also sailed for fruit several days ago, but neither had sixteen men in their crew.

The latest news from Cuba is that the government has captured a schooner loaded with arms and ammunition at Havana, which was to go to Santiago de Cuba. At Santa Clara several rifles were captured hidden away in fields.

Dolores Abedo, a young Cuban girl, has been confined to prison for aiding in the concealment of arms at San Necolas street, Havana, several days ago. A lieutenant of volunteers, owner of Cafe Inglers, was also jailed for connection with this affair.

Coke Workers Get an Increase.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 19. — Notices have been posted at all the coke works of W. J. Rainey stating that an increase of 10 per cent in wages had been granted to all grades of labor. The new scale went into effect yesterday. The employes of this company are now receiving higher wages than are paid at any other works in the coke region. The advance granted by the Frick Coke company does not go into effect until April 1. Some of the smaller coke operators have refused to grant an increase, and their men are preparing to strike.

Strikers Refuse a Compromise.

PROVIDENCE, March 19.—The striking weavers of the Manton mills received a communication from Proprietor Horace Kimbal offering terms of settlement. His offers were refused at a meeting of the weavers without a dissenting voice. Although this strike involved only 110 operatives, the mill employes of Rhode Island are interested, since a reduction of 15 per cent. in wages was made in all mills last fall. The Manton strike is a test one, and if the strikers win the other mills will have to restore wages.

Powder House Destroyed, Two Killed.

OAKLAND, N. J., March 19.—A building used as a store house in connection with A. M. Money's powder mill here was blown to atoms by the explosion of a quantity of white powder. Three workmen were injured by the flying wood from the building and badly burned, and two of them died soon afterwards.

OFFICIALS INDICTED.

More Trouble for New York's Police Department.

NAMES OF THE ACCUSED WITHHELD

The Grand Jury Severely Arraigns High Officials, Blaming Them for Hindering the Recent Investigation of Police Mismanagement.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The extraordinary grand jury which has been investigating police corruptions came into the oyer and terminer court at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The foreman handed a big bundle of indictments to Justice Ingraham. There was at least twenty-five indictments in the bundle. Justice Ingraham took the indictments, but refused to tell who was indicted. Bench warrants were at once issued. The jury also handed in a lengthy presentment, summarizing the result of their work. The presentment is a scathing arraignment of high police officials, who are severely blamed for hindering the recent investigations.

Among the indictments there were also several dismissed complaints. Chief among these were the three complaints for bribery against Joseph Silver, the ex-convict who was recently arrested at the instance of Detectives Jacob and McManus. The complaint for conspiracy against E. A. Whitney, Arthur Dennett (Parkhurst agents) Joseph Liss, and Samuel Cohen, who were accused by the same detectives, was likewise dismissed.

As soon as it became known that Judge Ingraham had signed warrants for the indicted officials the corridors of the big building commenced to fill. Criminal lawyers who have defended police cases were soon on hand, but professed to have no business in view, but were there simply through curiosity. Men who have the reputation of being friendly to the police department were noticeable in the throng.

When Judge Ingraham reached court at 5 o'clock the jam was terrific, but all who had assembled to hear the names of the indicted officials were disappointed, as court was immediately adjourned until 11 o'clock today. Rumor ran riot as to who has been indicted. No one in authority would speak.

Bartow S. Weeks, assistant district attorney, in company with another official from Colonel Fellows' office, called at police headquarters at 5:45 o'clock. Both visitors went directly to Superintendent Byrnes' private office, where they remained a few moments. It was said that Mr. Weeks had in his custody warrants for the arrest of the indicted police officers, which he handed to the superintendent.

Mr. Byrnes left the building shortly after the departure of Mr. Weeks. He declined to talk about the indictments, but said that there would be no arrests during the night. It was inferred from his statement that the indicted men would be notified privately to appear in the court house in the morning to answer to the charges in the indictments and give bail.

A Woman Lynched in Nebraska.

BUTTE, Neb., March 19.—Some time Friday Mrs. W. E. Holton, a respectable woman, residing alone in an isolated part of Key Paha county, was outraged and lynched by hanging. The crime is credited to the vigilantes of the district, who are believed to be in league with cattle rustlers. Some think rustlers committed the crime in revenge for evidence against them furnished by the woman. Her struggle for life had evidently been a hard one. It is expected that another and probably several hangings will take place before long.

The Colombian Revolution Ended.

BOGOTA, March 19.—The revolution has ended in the complete triumph of General Reyes over the invaders near Malaga, and the whole army of rebels has surrendered to General Martens at Capitancjo. This dispatch from President Caro is confirmed by other telegrams of similar tenor from the provincial governors and military commanders.

Charged with Double Murder.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., March 19.—Claude Dewitt, one of the first suspects in the Busti murder, was arrested here last night charged with the murder of Mrs. Winslow Shearman and Mrs. Cynthia Davis at Busti, Dec. 15 last. The arrest was due to discoveries made by officers who searched Dewitt's home.

Japan's New Commander-in-Chief.

LONDON, March 19.—A dispatch from Kobe says that Prince Komatsu, commander-in-chief of the Japanese armies, has been ordered to proceed to China and to establish his principal headquarters probably at Port Arthur. The emperor remains at Hiroshima.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Judicial Apportionment Bill Will be Settled Next Week.

HARRISBURG, March 19. — The house granted special orders last night for the state custodian and judicial apportionment bills. The former will on Wednesday be put on third reading. The other measure will come up on second reading next Thursday and for third reading and final passage the following Wednesday. Mr. Nickell, of Philadelphia, was refused a special order for his amendment to the constitution abolishing spring elections, and M. Kerkeslager, of Philadelphia, was accorded the same treatment for the Penrose anti-sweat shop bill.

Mr. Tillbrook, of Allegheny, presented a bill to authorize any veteran and soldier or sailor to bring suit against any county, borough or township, being a military sub district, to recover an amount of money to which he became entitled by reason of his being accredited to such county, borough or township, on his re-enlistment to fill the quota of men then or afterwards called for from such county, borough or township.

Mr. Mackrell, of Allegheny, presented a bill appropriating $50,000 for an asylum for the chronic epileptic and criminal insane of western Pennsylvania. A bill was introduced by Mr. Kern, of Lehigh, providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about slate quarries and mines, and for the protection and skilful operation of slate quarries and mines and property connected therewith.

In the senate bills were passed finally: To empower councils in cities of the third class to enact ordinances governing street sprinkling, fix rates for same and provide for their collection; to provide that the right of action for personal injury shall survive against the personal estate of the wrongdoer; to amend the act relating to fraudulent debtors by granting the right of appeal to the supreme court; to improve school and other grounds for park purposes.

Terrible Accident to a Schoolgirl.

PITTSBURG, March 19.—A shocking accident occurred at Wilkinsburg Station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, resulting in the fatal injury of Mary Crombie, aged 18, who was about to take the train for the city, where she attended school. The train was moving and she attempted to get on, but was thrown under the wheels. Her right hand and foot were severed, and she was dragged some distance before the train could be checked. It is feared she will not survive the shock. The accident was witnessed by a number of persons at the station, and several ladies fainted.

Bloodless Battle with Tramps.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., March 19.—Fifty shots were exchanged yesterday between officers and citizens and a pair of tramps. An attempt had been made to arrest the tramps, but they got away. The officers fired at the tramps, who turned and returned the fire and then ran for the woods, swimming the river in order to escape. Five hundred men joined in the pursuit. The tramps were captured after a four mile chase, and after they had emptied their revolvers repeatedly at the pursuers. No one was hurt.

A Ninety-Year-Old Suicide.

CHICAGO, March 19. — Mrs. Katherine Krupka, 90 years old, was found dead hanging to a hinge in her room at 1023 Noble avenue. Mrs. Krupka until recently, despite her great age, had retained her faculties to a marked degree, and when, a few weeks since, her eye sight and hearing began to fail, she threatened suicide. Despite the close watch kept by her relatives, she succeeded in ending her life, supposedly while insane from fear of becoming helpless.

Suit to Recover a Gift.

NASHUA, N. H., March 19.—Suit has been brought against the city by Miss Mary E. Hunt to recover possession of $50,000 formerly donated for a library. The citizens have had over two years' bitter war over selecting a site, with many appeals and decisions from the court, and at last the donor, tired of the bitterness and demanded the money back. Now the citizens are fighting that. Chief Justice Doe will hear the case April 9.

To Protect New Jersey Motormen.

TRENTON, March 19.—The house last night passed Assemblyman Smart's bill which requires trolley companies to have the front platforms of their cars inclosed. Other bills passed were the senate bill, with the house amendment, providing for an additional vice chancellor, who must be a counsellor of ten years' standing, and the senate bill transferring $200,000 from the general fund to the school fund.

Have Outlived Their Usefulness.

READING, Pa., March 19.—Many of the old timers employed in the machine and car shops of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company in this city have been informed that their services are no longer valuable, and they will be obliged to give way to younger men. Some of them have been in the company's employ from forty to forty-five years.

Not Murdered by Robbers.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., March 19.—It is now inferred that H. S. Reynolds, the missing poultry dealer at Carey, has not been murdered by robbers, but has flown to a more congenial clime to avoid punishment for a crime. He killed a chicken in his room and spattered things with blood to give belief to the murder story.

Portugal and Brazil at Peace.

RIO JANEIRO, March 19.—The resumption of diplomatic relations between Brazil and Portugal causes general satisfaction. The action of President Moraes in closing the military school and expelling the students who have been fomenting disturbances in favor of ex-President Peixoto has produced a good effect.

Embezzling County Treasurer Sentenced.

ELLSWORTH, Kan., March 19.—The case of ex-County Treasurer Dick, charged with embezzling $36,000 from Ellsworth county, was called in the district court yesterday. He withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered one of guilty. He was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary by Judge Eastland.

A DYING GOVERNOR.

Delaware's Chief Magistrate Nearing the End of Life.

HIS FAMILY HAS ABANDONED HOPE.

Should a Vacancy Occur a Democrat Will Become Governor—It Is Feared That Governor Marvil's Son and Business Associate Is Also Near Death.

LAUREL, Del., March 19.—Governor Marvil's death seems now to be but a question of a few days, perhaps hours. The members of his family have given up all hope, and it is conceded that nothing but the sick man's indomitable will keeps him alive. The change for the worse made its appearance yesterday morning, when it became necessary to perform an operation for the purpose of relieving the heart from a dropsical accumulation, and since that time the governor has been very weak. Dallas Marvil, the governor's partner and only son, has also grown much worse, and it is not believed that he will survive the parent, to whom he is devotedly attached.

In the event of Governor Marvil's death he will be succeeded by a political opponent—William T. Watson, who was elected to the senate from Kent county on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Watson was chosen president of the senate on the organization of that body, and by virtue of that position succeeds to the governorship in case of a vacancy by death or resignation. This would necessitate a new election for senator in Kent county, and would precipitate a lively struggle, for should a Republican be elected to succeed Mr. Watson it will give the Republicans control of both branches of the legislature.

JOSHUA H. MARVIL.

Such election, too, would bring about a lively party struggle between the friends of Higgins and Addicks, the leading Republican candidates for the United States senatorship. The gain of a vote for either Higgins or Addicks, however, would not necessarily settle the long senatorial deadlock, as the friends of the different candidates are as far apart as when the contest begun. The vote taken yesterday resulted: Higgins (Rep.), 6; Addicks (Rep.), 6; Massey (Rep.), 4; Wolcott (Dem.), 6; Bayard (Dem.), 3.

Ezeta's Supporters Executed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—General Antonio Ezeta, who is safely housed in a comfortable hotel here, announces that a new rebellion in his interest has taken place in San Salvador. The last steamer from the south brought a letter to Ezeta stating that on Feb. 1 last President Gutierrez unearthed a conspiracy that had been hatched for the purpose of reinstating Ezeta as head of the government of San Salvador. Under Gutierrez's orders all of the leading conspirators were shot. Among them were Colonels Barrios and Salgedo and Captain Maguild. The chief of police was also immediately shot. All the prisoners who were jailed since the last uprising were ordered to be hanged, and Ezeta believed that by this time the order has been executed.

Indiana's Missing Custodian Bill.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 19.—At the end of the fifth day after the adjournment of the legislature all bills received by the governor at the close of the session must be returned to the office of the secretary of state to be filed. During the riot on the closing night the custodian bill, which caused the trouble, disappeared. Governor Matthews could not return to the secretary with other bills and in an official statement giving his account of the riot yesterday attempted to file his reasons with the Republican secretary. That official refused to accept it, fearing that it would affect litigation which will grow out of the complication. The statement was accompanied by the veto of the bill.

Four Miners Killed by Explosion.

NOGALES, Ariz., March 19.—In the Verde mine, at Minas Prietas, Sonora, Mexico, four miners were killed and one fatally injured by an explosion of giant powder. By the force of the explosion two of the men killed were blown up a winze seventy feet in depth, and the other two were blown across the winze and crushed beyond all recognition against the rock of the gallery. The dead men are John Masse, John Rosa, Bartola Senig and Angel Capalma.

Erastus Wiman's Confidence.

NEW YORK, March 19.—In an interview with a reporter at his Broadway office Erastus Wiman said: "I have little fear for my future. I am working hard, and in the next few years I will wipe out my indebtedness and will have a large fortune besides. The trouble before was that I undertook too much. In the future I will not make $500,000 for other people, as I did in the past. Of course I made a good deal for myself. But I spent it in these other things."

A Bookmaker's Conviction Affirmed.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The court of appeals of the District of Columbia affirmed the decision of Judge Cole in the case of Frederick T. Miller, convicted for making books on races, in the case made to test the law and the right of bookmakers. The decision is a setback, and leaves no loophole for racing within the District of Columbia unless the United States supreme court should reverse the decision.

AN AMAZED INDIAN CHIEF.

Two Stars' Introduction to the Kinetoscope and the Phonograph.

Probably no Indian who ever visited Washington to counsel with the great father returned to his tribe better satisfied with the results of his trip than the Sisseton Sioux Two Star. He not only accomplished the object of his mission, but he was entertained in a style that falls to the lot of few of the nation's wards. Agent Keller was with him, as well as the interpreter, Joe Brown. The latter, by the way, is a somewhat notable figure himself. He is a son of that Major Brown who commanded the troops at the battle of Birch Cooley during the Sioux outbreak. He has lived all his life among these Indians and now keeps a large store on the reservation.

Two Star was sent here by his tribe to ask the immediate payment to them of $199,000 of their principal now in the custody of the United States. This sum amounts to $1,699,000. The Indians are in very destitute circumstances this winter, owing to an almost complete failure of their crops, and the interest due them is not sufficient to carry them over until next fall. The impairment of the principal is a matter which by law rests entirely with the president. In this case he has promised to follow the recommendation of the commissioner of Indian affairs, which is to the effect that the grant be made.

It is a somewhat singular fact that, although Two Star was one of General Silbey's scouts and has always associated with the whites upon terms of the friendliest intimacy, he cannot speak a word of English. His enjoyment of the white man's amusement is, however, none the less keen. Senator Kyle's clerk, Duncan McFarland, took him in to see the kinetoscope. As he looked in upon the picture in motion a look of amazement, not unmixed with a degree of consternation, crept over his face. He stepped back and looked around, above and below the case to find out what caused the exhibition. It was some time before he could be persuaded to again apply the eye to the aperture, and when the machine stopped with a click the noble red man jumped as if he had heard the warwhoop of some of his tribal enemies.

He was equally amazed, but none the less pleased, with the phonograph and insisted upon having a selection by the Marine band repeated. He was taken to an amateur athletic and gymnastic performance at the Columbia Athletic club and witnessed the exhibition of skill and prowess with a delight that was almost childlike. Just before his departure for the west Two Star said to our correspondent:

"I was here in 1867, but no one paid any attention to me then. I think Washington is a much nicer place now. It will be no use for me to tell my people about the things I have seen and heard (referring to the kinetoscope and phonograph), for no one would believe me. They would say I was not speaking the truth."—Cor. St. Paul Pioneer Press.

A TOUGH PIECE OF HUMANITY.

The Animated Old Snag Against Which an Insurance Company Ran.

This is the way a man named Gaines of St. Peter, Minn., got the better of an insurance company: Many years ago Mr. Gaines ~~insured his life~~ for $3,500. After many years of payment of $90 a year premium, at the age of 70 years he asked the officers of the company how much they would pay him to cancel his policy. They offered him $2,000. He refused to take it, but made them this proposition, "If you will give me $416 a year until death, which is $8 a week, I will cancel the policy."

"Agreed," said the company, which thought it had a cinch in its favor, as he would not live many years.

Since that time Mr. Gaines has lived 18 years, and the company has paid him his yearly stipulation of $416, which up to this time has amounted to $7,488. The saving of the $90 premium in the 18 years and the interest make it the snug sum of over $18,000 that the old man gained by his bargain. Mr. Gaines is well preserved at 88 and bids fair to receive many more payments at the hands of the company, which struck a tough piece of human timber upon which to base its calculations.—Chicago Tribune.

Where Bustles Are Coming to the Fore.

The wife of a gentleman who has been conducting an auction store at Lake Crystal recited an amusing incident to us the other day. Among his stock of goods he had 100 ladies' bustles, which he found it impossible to dispose of. His wife devised a brilliant plan, and the next evening the gentleman was smilingly selling the bustles for dog muzzles at 40 cents apiece. He disposed of the entire lot and telegraphed for 200 more. The second lot went faster than the first, and every dog in Lake Crystal wears a bustle for a muzzle, the penalty for nonbustled dogs being death.—St. Peter (Minn.) Journal.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

HER STRANGE PRISON.

Where a Cincinnati Man Found His Wife After a Burglary.

The construction of city flats is such that it seems as if flat thieves ought to be able to obtain almost unlimited plunder with impunity. But they are forever getting caught, and most of them are the lowest grades of sneak thieves.

Anything like originality in their methods is rare, so the experience of the head of a modest west side flat is remarkable. He arrived home from business about 6 o'clock and at once observed indications that something unusual had been going on.

It was evident that a thief had been around, and that he had gone away without taking much, if anything, with him unless it was the resident's wife, for she was nowhere to be found. The husband presumed that she had gone to notify the police, so he sat down and waited, but after an hour or two he became anxious and inquired of the neighbors.

They had heard or seen nothing either of thief or wife. Then there was trouble. The husband hurried to the nearest police station. His wife hadn't been there, and a general alarm was sent out for patrolmen to watch for her, while two detectives returned to the house and helped push inquiries.

The kitchen and dining room looked as if the wife had been interrupted in her work, but there was no other sign of her. The detectives looked very wise, asked many questions that seemed impudent to the distracted husband, made some notes and went away.

The husband was in a bad state of mind, but not so upset that he didn't presently realize that he needed food. Rather than go to a restaurant he went to his refrigerator to see what there might be to eat. He opened the door, and there, curled up in the ice chamber, was his wife. She wasn't hurt. She hadn't even fainted.

She was simply asleep, somewhat stupefied with the close air and cramped in every joint, but otherwise in good condition and glad to get out. She explained that she caught a thief at work, and that he clapped her into the refrigerator before she could scream. Once in she could do nothing. There was no inner handle to the door. She cried aloud, and finding no response just waited to be discovered, dreading all the while that her wedding spoons had been taken. They were not, though. They had been placed, with other valuables, in the center of the dining room table for carrying off, and the incident ended happily.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

AN EXPENSIVE CURL.

The Origin of a Story Attributed to Twenty Handsome Women.

Lady Harriet D'Orsay was really, according to Mr. Sala, in his reminiscences published recently, the heroine of a story which has been told in at least 20 forms of 20 different ladies of fashion. She was presiding at a stall at a vente de charite, or bazaar, held in aid of the fund of some asylum or another, when there came up the Duke of Orleans, son and heir of King Louis Philippe. The duke, after some polite small talk, began to extol the beauty of her hair, and indeed her Henrietta Maria coiffure had never looked glossier or softer than it did this day.

"Oh," said his royal highness, "if I could only possess one of those enchanting ringlets!"

"How much would monseigneur give for one," asked Lady Harriet gravely, "5,000 francs?"

"Five thousand francs!" repeated the duke. "A mere bagatelle!"

"Six thousand francs?"

"Anything so charming a lady chose to ask."

"I will not be extortionate," pursued Lady Harriet. "We will say 5,000."

And then she very composedly produced a dainty little pair of scissors, snipped off the adorable Henrietta Maria ringlet, wrapped it in silver paper and handed it with dignity to the duke. His royal highness looked very straight down his nose, and returning Lady Harriet's salute stalked somewhat gloomily away. But his privy purse duly forwarded the money next day.

A Valuable Coin.

A well known bishop tells a story of a clerk at a village church who deliberately took half a crown out of the plate as he brought it up to the communion table and slipped it into his pocket.

"I saw him take it," said the bishop, "and intended to charge him with it at the end of the service, but carried away by the sublimity of the service I forgot all about it. Next day I remembered and spoke about it.

"'Oh, sir,' said the old clerk, 'never you worry about that. That half crown has done good service fer many years. I keep it to put down first, and then the gentry, seeing a poor man like me put 2s. 6d. in the plate, can't for shame give less.'"—London Tit-Bits.

The Prize Mean Man.

The meanest man on record is said to live in Center county, Pa. He sold his son-in-law one-half interest in a cow and then refused to divide the milk, maintaining that he sold only the front half. The buyer was also required to provide the feed the cow consumed and was compelled to carry water to her three times a day. Recently the cow hooked the old man, and he is suing the son-in-law for damages.—Oil City Blizzard.

PERILS OF SHOPPING IN NEW YORK.

Many Arrests of Women Suspected of Shoplifting that Proved to Be Without Cause.

Within the last few days the New York papers have recorded the arrest of several women in the large retail stores of the city, on charges of shoplifting, which failed of substantiation in police court.

These unwarranted arrests, coming in such close succession, emphasize the risks that women, especially country women, run in the thronged bazaars of a great city. Unused to crowds, they may become so nervous as to be for the time scarcely conscious of what they are doing, and may do something that attracts to them the attention of the store "detectives."

It is true of all detectives that they feel it necessary to prove their keenness and vigilance by detecting what they are hired to detect, and the New York police do not hesitate to say that they believe store "detectives" have claimed to find on women whom they have searched articles that they produced from about their own persons.

It is a serious matter for the proprietors of a store to subject a woman to the indignity of a search and such searches usually result in finding something which it is claimed was stolen. The police say that the only safety for a suspected woman is to insist on being searched by a police matron at a police station.

There are many other perils and annoyances to which women subject themselves when they go shopping in New York, that it is needless to refer to here. There is no necessity to go out of town for anything in the way of women's wear or household furnishings, for Middletown's stores are wonderfully well stocked and the wise woman will do her shopping at home, where it can be done in ease, comfort and safety.

PHYSICIANS AND SCIENTISTS.

Fail To Help Mrs N. Whitney.

HILLSBORO BRIDGE, N. H.—There is no more highly respected resident of this village, than Mrs. N. E. Whitney. Her long and serious illness and her remarkable recovery through the aid of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, have made that medicine a necessity in many New Hampshire households.

Mrs. Whitney in speaking about her sickness said: "I had been gradually failing in health for a number of years, and was told by my physicians that I was in the last stages of Bright's Disease. I had been under the treatment at various times, of six physicians, two clairvoyants, and a Christain scientist, but received no benefit from any of them. It seemed to me that every means of ever being cured had been tried except to use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which had been recommended. I purchased a bottle, and by the time I had used the second bottle I was greatly improved, and from that on I gained daily, and it was not long before I was doing my regular household work. No tongue can tell how I suffered for the three years before I used Favorite Remedy. My age is 55, and I now weigh 35 pounds more than I ever did. Favorite Remedy restored me to health and strength."

As a prominent physician recently said: "Any one suffering from kidney or urinary troubles, rheumatism or dyspepsia, should use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, it will cure them if their disease is within the reach of medicine."

A VETERAN'S STORY.

GEN. CATLIN PRAISES MUNYON FOR HIS GREAT WORK.

His Restoration to Health Due to the Wonderful Little Sugar Pellets.

General A. B. Catlin, formerly Deputy Surveyor of the Port of New York, is a veteran of the army and a well-known Republican politician.

"I have been troubled with catarrh for many years," said General Catlin. "I doctored for it a great deal but did not obtain any material relief, and this winter my condition was terrible. I took cold easily, and my nose became stopped up. I had severe pains across the front of my head my eyes became watery, I sneezed a great deal and my bones and joints ached continually. When I got up in the morning my throat was filled with a nasty slime, which dropped there during the night. I had to hawk a great deal, and this made me gag and often vomit. There was a roaring or buzzing sound in my ears, and my breath was very offensive. I lost my appetite, ran down in weight, and became depressed in spirits.

"I tried thoroughly several of the best physicians, so-called, in New York, took patent nostrums of all descriptions, but grew worse all the time.

"Finally, I began Munyon's Catarrh Remedies. I thought it was no use, and had but little faith, but I began to improve right away. My disease rapidly yielded to the remedy and I underwent a change that was wonderful. Within a short time I was entirely cured, the last trace of the hideous disease had vanished, and to-day my friends are marveling at the great change in me. It is a wonderful relief to feel strong and healthy again, and it gives me great pleasure to testify that my restoration to health is due to Munyon's Catarrh Remedy."

Munyon's Homœopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully diagnose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

A. E. NICKINSON, - BUSINESS MANAGER

TUESDAY, MARCH 19, 1895

Mrs. Lease is to run for Mayor of Wichita, Kan., in opposition to the Republican candidate. She will be supported by Democrats, Prohibitionists and Populists and, she confidently expects, by most of the women of the city. Whatever the result a very lively campaign is assured the city of Wicnita.

Rev Thomas Dixon, Jr., the sensational preacher who has just cut loose from the Baptist denomination and proposes to found a "people's church," has outlined his plan of organization. He will associate with himself as pastor, a Congregational clergyman and this combination of pseudo-Baptist and Congregationalist is supposed to be broad enough to cover all possible differences in religious views. Half the deacons are to be women and this novel feature seems to specially commend itself to the followers of Mr. Dixon.

The World, Sunday, published a long article on disease germs and poisons found on bank bills and illustrated it with reproductions of the revelations made by microscopes, which showed the bills to be literally swarming with microbes and bacteria. The Herald devoted a page to an illustrated article on the microbes found in and on free lunches served in New York saloons. It's easy enough to escape the free lunch microbes and many people, not entirely of their own volition, manage to escape the dangers that lurk in the microbes that infest bank bills, and a great many others, provided they can get the bills, are willing to run any and all chances of their swarming with microbes.

The Press would have its readers believe that imports of Canadian eggs, subject to a duty of three cents a dozen, will paralyze the egg producing industry of this country, and that nothing but a restoration of the McKinley duty of five cents a dozen can save the United States hen from the ruinous competition of the pauper hen that scratches and clucks and lays and cackles on the other side of the Canadian line. For our part we have a better opinion of the American hen than to believe that she cannot hold her own against the Canuck hen unless her eggs are protected by a duty of five cents a dozen. It isn't the Canadian hen but the California hen that is playing havoc with egg prices in New York, and what if eggs are cheap? Haven't the hundreds of thousands who buy eggs rights to be considered as well as those who have eggs to sell?

The State has been flooded with a nineteen page pamphlet, sent out from an unknown source, which contains the stenographic minutes of Dr. Parkhurst's testimony in the Hattie Adams case. It will be remembered that in order to secure evidence to prove that the Adams woman kept a disorderly house, Dr. Parkhurst visited the house and on the witness stand told all that he did and all that he saw there. Dr. Parkhurst claimed that the end justified the means, but most people after reading the evidence will agree that it would have been more in keeping with clerical dignity to have delegated the duty of visiting the house to the paid agents of the Society for the Prevention of Crime.

Shipments of American apples to England were larger, last season, than ever before, and the popularity of American fruit is firmly established in all parts of the British Isles. The prices realized on apples shipped to England all told a fine margin of profit on selected fruit of popular varieties selling for several times the highest prices quoted in New York. The best of the apples bought in this vicinity, last fall, were exported, and there is no reason why the owners of fine orchards in Orange county should not put themselves in readiness to share in the high prices England is ready to pay for American apples. Wide awake Dutchess county fruit growers have been shipping apples to England for years and getting rich at it.

THE SPANISH CAPTAIN LIES.

So says the Captain of the Alliance—Getting Affidavits from Those on Board the American Ship.

BY UNITED PRESS

NEW YORK, March 19.—Captain Crossman of the Alliance said, this morning, with reference to the Havana dispatch stating that a vessel flying the English flag had been fired on by a Spanish cruiser, that the vessel referred to was evidently the Alliance. He declared emphatically, however, that the captain of the cruiser lied when he said the English flag was displayed and that the vessel was within a mile and a half of the Cuban coast. He declared that if he had displayed the English flag the cruiser would not have dared to fire. The captain is busy getting affidavits of those who witnessed the incident, and has made affidavit that he saluted with the American flag.

Dartmouth Professors

Called it Incurable.

"I had a painful ulcer on my ankle, which physicians called an old man's sore, due to the poor state of my blood. The sore spread to the size of a saucer, and I had to give up business. The surgeons at Dartmouth College would not perform operation, claiming that my advanced age, 78 years, in itself was a barrier, and that only temporary relief could be given. I was pining over my misfortune when a friend urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had taken but part of a bottle when the eruption looked more healthy and after taking 6 bottles the sore

CARPET TALK.

Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy carpets; but what we want to impress on the minds of the readers of this paper is that it does not take much money to buy your carpets from us, this spring. When you can buy a 1st-class Smith's Moquette for $1 per yard, and the 2d quality for 75 cents, the very best 5-frame Bod. Brussels for $1, and all other grades in proportion, it seems as if every one ought to have a new carpet this spring. You will be more convinced of this when you see our new spring styles. Our line of Axminsters are "out of sight." We never before showed such a line of carpets in the 22 years we have been in business.

TWO FROGS.

Once upon a time, two frogs without being consulted in the matter, found themselves shut up in a milk can and on their way to market. They soon found they could not live below the surface, and they had to kick vigorously in order to keep their heads above the milk. One of them, after working hard for a time, became discouraged and said, "There's no use kicking longer; let's give up and go to the bottom. The other frog said, "Oh, no, let's keep on kicking as long as we can, and see what the outcome will be; we may get out alive yet." The other frog said, "It's no use," and went to the bottom. The other frog did not give up but kept on kicking, and when the can was opened he had kicked out a lump of butter on which he was floating with ease. The moral is plain—during such times as these, do not get discouraged and go down, but keep right on kicking, and perhaps a few more kicks will bring the butter.

We take this opportunity to remind you that we are still kicking away at 30 North street, and will appreciate very much any orders or business that you can give us or turn our way.

Our special kick, to-day, is Japanese Tooth Brushes. The Japs best the world on good Tooth Brushes at low prices. We've captured a window full of 'em. Try one with our Ivory Tooth Wash.

OBITUARY.

Christopher E. Geisenheimer.

Christopher E. Geisenheimer, one of the best known, highly esteemed and most influential German residents of Port Jervis, died at 5:20 o'clock, this morning, at his home, 120 Pike street, that village. His death was caused by apoplexy, a stroke of which he suffered about 9 o'clock, Monday night, while attending the meeting of Carroll Post, G. A. R., in the Farnum building.

He was the Senior Vice Commander of the post and took an active part in the meeting in his official capacity. He was taken home and died, as above stated, this morning.

He was born in Sachsen Meiningen, Germany, April 22, 1837, and came to America in 1853. He resided in New York until the beginning of the war, and enlisted in the Eleventh Regiment upon the first call of the President for troops in the civil war. He returned after three months, and recruited a company in New York, of which he was to be captain, but while the company was being drilled on Long Island Mr. Geisheimer for some reason resigned.

He removed to Newburgh after the war, and was married, March 20, 1865, to Christina Erestine, of New Haven, and immediately after his marriage removed to Port Jervis. He was a tailor by trade.

He is survived by his wife and one brother, George, of Port Jervis, and one sister, Mrs. Frederika Heintz, of Connecticut.

Mr. Geisenheimer was a charter member of Lawson Hose Co., of Newburgh, and one of its honorary members. He was one of the charter members of the Port Jervis Manerchor.

He belonged to numerous lodges and orders, among them the Knights of Honor, Odd Fellows, Masons, etc. For seventeen years he was a singer in the Port Jervis Catholic Church.

His funeral will take place, Thursday afternoon, from the house at 2 o'clock and at the church at 2.30. It will be conducted by Carroll Post, G. A. R., Rev. J. R. Chsteiner, of the German Lutheran Church officiating. Interment in the Laurel Grove Cemetery.

His wife died five years ago, when he gave up business and has since resided on his farm near the village.

SAVED FROM DEATH.

Prompt Action of Brave Flagman Gleason Prevents a Shocking Accident at the Erie's North Street Crossing.

The gates at the North street crossing of the Erie have not been in operation for some time, owing to the cold weather. The wires and chains connecting the gates with the tower have frozen fast on the south gate and it cannot be worked.

Michael Gleason has been stationed at the crossing as flagman and has had several very narrow escapes. The public has become accustomed to the gates and when they are up, drive or stand fearlessly upon the tracks, regardless of the warnings of the flagman. Last night, as the milk train was drawing out of the station, two ladies stood on the west bound track on the west side of North street. A man stood on the same track on the east side of the street. Gleason heard the whistle and saw the head light of the Middletown way train. He grabbed the man by the coat and threw him clear of the track and then ran to the ladies and managed to get them out of the way as the train rushed by.

One of the ladies, when she realized how close she had been to a frightful death, fainted.

The gates should be thawed out at once.

BRANDY AND TEMPERANCE.

A Reformer Who Preaches Total Abstinence and Drinks Forty Cent Brandy.

A few days ago, a gentleman from a neighboring town was in this city, and entering the barroom of a well known hotel said to the proprietor: "I don't want to be inquisitive, but I have great curiosity to know what that man who just stepped out of the side door was in here for?"

The proprietor said he didn't usually give such information, but would in this case, and added, "He just took two great big horns of my forty-cent brandy and drank it and paid for it like a man. I offered him the twenty-five cent stuff, but it wasn't good enough for him."

"Just as I expected," said the visitor, "He's been preaching temperance in our town for the past two or three weeks, and has raked in about a hundred dollars. I sized him up right the first time I heard him talk."

IT'S ONLY A RUMOR.

Reported Withdrawal of the Adams Express Company from the O. and W.

The Norwich Sun claims to be reliably informed that the Adams Express Company will withdraw from the O. and W. road on May 1st, and the National will again have the express on the road.

This is probably only a rumor which originated with the "stove committee." The Adams Company, on May 1st, 1893, entered into a contract for five years with the O. and W. Company, and as this contract does not expire until May 1st, 1898, it will be seen that without a mutual arrangement between the parties to the contract no change can be made until 1898.

A similar rumor of a change was circulated along the line of the road a year ago.

THE GAME OF POKER.

Growing in Popularity in Middletown—Big Games in Hotels and Small Games in Parlors.

Draw poker is becoming a very popular game in this city. It is whispered so loudly that all but the police can hear it that poker rooms are run in many hotels and saloons, and it is also whispered that of late some games have been played for very big money.

Poker has also become of late a popular parlor game, and in quite a number of households in this city games of poker are regularly played for small stakes. It is said that some ladies have become so expert that they play very stiff games, and can more than hold their own against the men with whom they play.

A Walking Club Proposed.

A well known lady of this city, who believes that women and girls do not take sufficient exercise and who also believes that walking is, all things considered, the best exercise, is talking of organizing a walking club. Her idea is that women and girls will not walk merely for the sake of exercise and that a club with fixed times and definite objective points for its walks, will make walking such a pleasure that the members will never lack for exercise.

Features of Mr. Stevens's Concert.

Mr. Ernest T. Winchester, whose reputation as a musician is established in this city, is to be one of the soloists at Mr. Stevens concert, next Monday evening, in the Second Presbyterian Church. Miss Lizzie Thompson, the soprano soloist of Chester, has been engaged and will sing two solos.

C. N. PREDMORE & SON.

HE MET JOE JEFFERSON.

Happy Result of Richard Mansfield's Introduction to the Famous Comedian.

Joseph Jefferson and Richard Mansfield met for the first time recently, and the circumstances of the Twelfth Night club now recall events from that time.

It happened in this way: Mr. Mansfield had volunteered to take part at their recent benefit at the Empire theater, but a few days before the event sent word that it would be impossible for him to appear. The Twelfth Nighters do not like to cause any disappointments, so the young women were thrown into a great flurry. Mr. Mansfield was one of the strongest cards of the event.

Miss Beatrice Cameron, who is Mrs. Mansfield in private life, and who is also a loyal member of the Twelfth Night, was appealed to by her fellow members and it appears that under her influence Mr. Mansfield declared that he would appear without fail.

It is conceded, even by his opponents, that Mr. Mansfield has genius. Genius, too, has its eccentricities, and this may explain why Mr. Mansfield, on the very day of the entertainment, made it known that he positively would not appear.

Another reason advanced is that a comic opera comedian between whom and him existed an arctic void was on the bill, and Mr. Mansfield felt that he couldn't consistently appear on the same stage. But this is mere gossip—folks will talk, you know.

Whatever the facts, the leading Twelfth Nighters who were on the stage nearly fainted when they heard this final decision. There sat Mr. Mansfield in a box, looking at the performance as coolly as though he was to have had no part in it at all. Miss Alice Fischer, who is the vice president of the club, had some one bring him behind the scenes.

This was just after Mr. Jefferson had contributed his share to the entertainment and Mr. Mansfield had heartily applauded the dean of the American stage. Mr. Mansfield, after leaving his box, was surrounded by a bevy of young women, but all their pleadings didn't have the slightest effect on him.

Miss Fischer saw this and realized that some master stroke must be made, and quickly at that. She caught sight of Mr. Jefferson. Her mind was made up in an instant. She ran to him.

"Oh, Mr. Jefferson," said she, "do come with me. I want you and Mr. Mansfield to meet."

And with a cheery smile the old actor readily assented. The younger actor was just tearing himself from an almost sobbing circle of women when Miss Fischer came to save the day. She introduced the men.

"I am charmed to meet you, Mr. Jefferson," said Mr. Mansfield, cordially shaking the hand of Rip Van Winkle.

"A like pleasure is mine," said Mr. Jefferson. "I have heard much of your art, and this will be the first time I have had an opportunity of seeing you, and I have looked forward to it with the keenest enjoyment."

There was nothing but sincerity in the speech, and the young women who had been pleading in vain stood expectantly to one side awaiting the answer.

"Thank you," replied Mr. Mansfield. "I trust you will not be disappointed."

And neither was he. It is said Richard Mansfield walked on the stage and gave a brief performance which for brilliancy of execution has been seldom, if ever, excelled.—New York Herald.

SOCIETY IMPERTINENCE.

Kitchen Odors and Plebeian Blood Offend the Daintiness of Gotham's 400.

The season of Italian opera ended none too soon, according to some very interesting stories which reach my ears.

On the last Friday night of the performances a strong smell of grease and cooking was traced to the box of a very well known ex-commodore of the New York Yacht club, and upon investigation it was found that in the goodness of his heart he had permitted his fat old cook and her staff of assistants to occupy the family places.

Women in the neighboring boxes, who were decked out in all their finery, were naturally highly indignant that a party of household servants should have been thrust in among them.

People who did not wish to use their boxes for matinee performances have more than once sent their servants, which was sufficiently impertinent, but to send the cook and scullery maids to an evening performance was either that display of a total lack of savoir faire or was intended to be a direct affront upon the adjacent boxholders.—Cholly Knickerbocker in New York Recorder.

A Blow at Texas Bachelors.

Representative Moroney has introduced in the house a bill providing for the levying of a $50 annual tax upon all unmarried men of 30 years of age who under oath swear that they have not exerted due diligence in trying to get married. He shall be exempt from the fine, however, if he can produce evidence to show that he tried to get married. To be exempt from this act, however, if he remains single, he must produce the affidavit of some reputable woman that at least once a year he has made a proposal of marriage to her.—Austin (Tex.) Dispatch.

DAN DIDN'T DRINK.

But, All the Same, His Share of Whisky Didn't Grow Any Older.

Somebody asked Secretary Lamont to take a drink one other day. Before the colonel could pay somebody else told this story:

"That makes me think of the last time I heard some one gave the colonel the same invitation. It was during Cleveland's first term. The presidential party was in St. Louis reviewing the parade. It was a cold, blustering day, the sort of weather which makes one draw himself up into the smallest possible space. Governor Francis, who was doing the honors, looked at the president standing stoically in the face of the wind while the parade went by. Going to Colonel Lamont, the governor said:

"'Colonel, do you eh—eh—think it would—it would be right to ask the president to eh—to take a drink—eh—of whisky? Pretty cold, you know, and it would do him good.'

"'Ask him to take a drink!' Lamont exclaimed. 'Good heavens, man, do you mean to say that you have been with the president 24 hours and haven't asked him to take a drink?'

"The governor looked somewhat surprised, but at the same time relieved, admitted his guilt, and, stepping to the president, said:

"'Mr. President.'

"The president, turning around, looked at him straight in the eye, which seemed to take the sand out of the governor, who, blushing and stammering like a young man about to propose to his sweetheart, said:

"'Eh, Mr. President, do you know it is very cold today—eh—I thought that maybe, just by way of a preventive, you know, that possibly you might think it wise to take a small drink of—eh—whisky.'

"'Where is it?' the president in a very business-like manner asked.

"'Right this way,' said Governor Francis, and beckoning at the same time to Lamont and the mayor he led the party to a room which contained a table on which were four glasses half filled with whisky. The president looked at the glasses and said to Governor Francis:

"'Who are these for?'

"'Why, one, Mr. President, is for you, one for Colonel Lamont, one for the mayor and one for myself.'

"The president took up one glass and emptied its contents into another. Setting down the empty glass, he raised the filled one carefully to his lips, and looking at the red liquor with an expression of sweet anticipation said just before emptying his glass, 'Dan don't drink.'"—Chicago Times.

A NEW CURE FOR LUNACY.

Some Interesting and Successful Experiments by Eminent Specialists of Vienna.

An interesting new method of curing mental diseases was expounded by Professor Wagner, head of the psychiatric department of Vienna university, at a meeting last week. The cure is based upon the fact, frequently experienced, that mental maladies disappear if the patient gets another illness of an entirely different kind, particularly fever.

Professor Wagner, following nature's inexplicable cure, has produced fever in the insane by applying Dr Koch's tuberculin to grave cases. The effect of this treatment was that, after every tuberculin injection, the insane patient felt easier, the insanity recurring several times, but finally disappearing for good.

Professor Albert, the well known surgeon of Vienna university, corroborated this testimony by a recent case in his department. A patient who was suffering from melancholia had to go through the operation of transfusion of blood. This caused a high fever, during which the state of the patient's mind was remarkably improved. When the fever ceased, his mental condition was, to the professor's astonishment, entirely normal.—Vienna Letter.

A New Mining Fever Coming.

There are indications that an era of speculation in gold mining stocks is rapidly approaching. The great cheapening of silver has directed renewed attention to the most precious of metals, and there has been a remarkable increase in its production during the past year. Cheaper and better machinery has been invented, and new and more effective processes of treating ores are being constantly discovered. In consequence mines that were long ago abandoned as worthless have been reopened, and new ones are being located everywhere in the gold bearing regions. Under the new order of things a great deal more capital is required, and since comparatively few individuals can be found able or willing to take the risk of mining investments stock companies must be formed. The result may soon be that the market will be flooded with mining securities.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Large Bequests For Public Uses.

Within a week two wills have been probated in this city containing large legacies to our local benevolent and other public institutions. Few realize how vast is the sum yearly bequeathed or given to charitable uses in this country in the course of a year. During the last year the enormous sum of $19,967,116 was given by well to do people and others to churches, colleges, museums, art galleries, libraries and other educational and helpful institutions.—Philadelphia Ledger.

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Incident of the Day When Women Shall Carry the Latchkeys.

"Er—Mildred," he said a trifle nervously as his fiancée laid down the morning's paper, and, lighting a cigarette, prepared for her departure to the city, "Mildred dear, do you think you could spare me a little money today?"

His wife glanced at him impatiently. "What, again, George?" she said. "Why, I only gave you your housekeeping allowance on—let me see—Thursday, wasn't it? Really some of you men seem to think we women are made of money!"

"You forget, my dear," he remarked, "there are the girl's wages, and the water rate, and the children both want new boots."

"Didn't I give you the money for that?" she asked.

"No, dear, that was for the flannel for little Molly's warm petticoats I'm making. Besides, dear, I—don't be angry, will you?—I saw such a cheap pair of trousers at the winter clearance sale yesterday that I couldn't resist buying them and you know I've hardly a rag to my back."

"Always your very self, George," she said angrily. "Really your extravagance in dress is something sinful. It is a pity you haven't got to go and earn the money. You'd know its value then. Here, take this, and for goodness' sake do try to pay some of your household bills with it and not frivol the money away on a lot of trash."

"There's a dear, good, darling wife," he cried joyfully. "Let me help my Mildred on with her coat," he added, following her into the hall. "What time will you be home?"

"Can't say, I'm sure," she answered. "I've got a lot to attend to at the office today, and I shall drop into the club for an hour or so after, so you needn't wait for dinner."

"Oh, that'll be nice," he responded. "I've got my woman coming to wash today, and the girls and I are going to put up clean curtains and things. Give me a kiss, dearest. There—there's your bus going now."

And as the bread-winner dashed out after the passing vehicle George blew her a parting kiss and went up stairs to bathe the children.—Chicago Tribune.

A Reasonable Theory.

"Sambo, they tell me that you have turned doctor?"

"Yes, sah! yes, sah. I'se dun turned doctor, sah. I'se a specialist, sah."

"Indeed! What is your specialty?"

"De grip, sah."

"Do you mean to say, Sambo, that you understand the grip as well as our great physicians who have given years of study to it?"

"Indeed I do, sah, much better, sah. Fact. I spec' I'se the only medical gemman in de kentry who hez de only exact, korrect ideah 'bout de grip, sah."

"Well, what is your theory?"

"Waal, sah, when a man hez de grip, sah, he hez all the sym'toms of all de diseases that dar am in de hull medical material, sah. He hez sym'toms of de roomatiz an de jandice an de fever n ager an de measles an de stummick complaint an consumption an yeller fever an smallpox an all de odder diseases."

"Yes, but how do you treat the disease?"

"Tain't no disease, but it am a complication of all de odder diseases. Consequently de only way to treat de disease am to give it all de remedies for all de odder diseases."

"Well, did you do it?"

"Sartainly, sah. I went froo de 'pothecary shop an picked out a little sample of all de medicines dar is an den stirred 'em all up togedder in a big water pail, an den of co'se I had a remedy dat would cure de hardest case of grip yo' can scare up."

"Did you try your remedy on any patients, Sambo?"

"Yes, sah, I tried it on fo' or five patients, sah."

"Well, how did it work?"

"Waal, sah, it would have worked first class but all de patients had to up an die befo' de medicine got any chance 'tall to operate, sah."—New York World.

PUBLIC VOICE.

"A Disgusted Republican" Discourses on Police Appointments and Municipal Affairs.

EDITORS ARGUS:—In your article headed "Grease for Election Machinery" you do not go deep enough in the matter. You forget to mention the fact that the reason there was no change in the police force this year was for the reason, as I am informed and believe, that each and every man, from Captain down, was assessed $25. It was simply a case of pay up or get out. Some of them kicked long and hard, but it was no use they had to come to it.

All the qualification a man need have to be a member of the police force of this city seems simply to be a Republican. Nobody asks or cares any thing about his character,—as long as he is a Republican, that is all that is required.

At the second last meeting of the Board of Aldermen there were three complaints against three different policemen. One was for debt; a prominent grocer presented a bill against a member of the police for $60 contracted since he became a policeman, and he has never been able to collect even one dollar of it. Yet they will elect such men on the force again simply because they pay their dues and are good Republicans.

It seems to me it would be more to the Boss' credit if he would take that blood money he made the police pay and pay some of their debts with it.

I see there were several applicants for places on the police force. Several of these I know personally. Two of them are big and strong, honest and fast, but not least, are sober at all times and would make excellent policemen yet they stood no earthly chance simply because they were Democrats. As one of them remarked: "Thank God! If that is my only fault I am proud of it."

A DISGUSTED REPUBLICAN.

"LITTLE EVA" HAS DIPHTHERIA.

Stricken With the Disease at Poughkeepsie, Saturday, and Sent to the Pest House.

Lillian Graham is the name of the little girl who played the part of "Little Eva" in Davis's "Uncle Tom's Cabin Co." at the Casino, Thursday evening. The company went from here to Newburgh and to Poughkeepsie, Saturday morning. There it was discovered that Eva had a bad attack of diphtheria.

The management endeavored to get a nurse for her and a place at which she could be cared for. No one wanted a case of diphtheria in the house; even the hospital wouldn't have her. The health board was applied to and the pest house, a dilapidated, rickety old building was given them. A kind hearted colored girl of the troupe went with her as nurse, and the two stood in the cold at the pest house for several hours. Finally some one broke in the door, kindled a fire and made the place as comfortable as possible for the sick child. The child will be given all the comforts obtainable with money.

The manager of the company says that Lillian Graham has been with him all the season; her father is advance agent for a dramatic company in the west; the mother formerly played Ophelia with the Davis Company. She was ill with consumption for some time and at Chicago was compelled to go in a hospital and her death is liable to occur at any time.

Reports received from Poughkeepsie are to the effect that the child is not dangerously ill, and if nothing unforeseen happens will recover. Miss Porteous, daughter of Dr. Porteous, offered to take the child into her home and nurse her, but the health board declined to permit.

FOUND SAFETY IN FLIGHT.

An Egg Stealing Tramp Escapes Being a Coroner's Case.

A resident of Highland avenue has been annoyed considerably of late by thefts of eggs from his hennery. Yesterday, armed with a shot gun, he lay in wait for the thief and was rewarded by seeing a tramp approach the building. The fellow caught sight of him at the same time and broke into a run. As the tramp did not come within gun shot the services of the coroner were not required. A warm reception will be accorded any one who visits the hen coop in the future.

Fined Five Dollars for Selling Liquor to a Minor.

Police Justice McCormick, of Port Jervis, yesterday, fined David Carr $5 for selling liquor to the fourteen-year-old son of Jackson Campbell. Carr was convicted by a jury on evidence that was clear and positive and the imposition of such a fine for so serious an offense is but a mockery of justice.
